Hi Jan – I'm adding Courtney Billet (director of the Office of Communications and Government Relations at NIAID), Kathy Stover (News Branch chief at NIAID), and Renate Myles (deputy director for Public Affairs in NIH's Deputy Director for Public Affairs, Office of Communications and Public Liaison). My colleagues may have a better sense of the various leads for various HHS-wide comms efforts focused on vaccine communication.

Thanks,
Jen

Hi Sandra and Jen,

Thank you very much for reaching out. It would be great to find time for early next week for a quick call on vaccine communications. Please let us know what time works best for you.

+Stanley Onyimba my colleague who is helping on Covid19 collaborations.

Thanks in advance for your time,
Jan

Hi Jan,

This email is meant to serve as an introduction to Jennifer Routh, from our NIAID Office of Communications and Government Relations.

Jen – as I mentioned, Jan and the Google team are hoping to connect on vaccine communications – specifically misinformation and also approval/distribution planning. Julie and I thought that perhaps you might be able to point Jan in the right direction HHS Comms team wise.

Thanks so much,
Sandra
